

Focus on Indiana Libraries

6/14/2022

This Month's Organization Update

Strategic Plan Update: The ILF Board met last week to finalize the details of the strategic plan. An update with the details will be going out in the next week to ILF members.

IPLA Update

To all Indiana public library directors, IPLA is currently evaluating what day and time would be best to host the regular meetings. Please indicate your preferences by taking our poll. Thank you for your help!

Great Things are Happening in Indiana Libraries

The Owen County Public Library was recently awarded the "Let's Talk About It: Women's Suffrage" grant for 2022, funded by the American Library Association with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities. This is the only library in Indiana that received the honor this year!
